Your Rights

California residents have certain rights. Please note that the below rights are not absolute, and we may be entitled to refuse requests, wholly or in part, where exceptions under applicable law apply.

Right to Access

You have the right to access personal information that we may collect or retain about you. If requested, we shall provide you with a copy of your personal information which we collected as permitted by the CPRA.

You also have the right to receive your personal information in a structured and commonly used format so that it can be transferred to another entity (“data portability”).

Right to Know

You have the right to request that we disclose the following about your personal information, as defined by the CPRA:

- The specific personal information we have collected;
- The categories of personal information we have collected;
- The categories of sources from which we have collected your personal information;
- The business purpose(s) for collecting or sharing your personal information;
- The categories of personal information we disclosed for business purposes; and
- The categories of third parties to whom we disclosed your personal information.

Right to Opt-Out/Do Not Sell My Personal Information

You have the right to opt-out of sharing your personal information with third parties for some purposes, including sharing that may be defined as a sale under applicable laws.

You also may have a right to opt-out of the use of curtailed automated decision-making technology.

Do Not Share or Disclose My Sensitive Personal Information

You have the right to limit how your sensitive personal information is disclosed or share with third parties, as defined in the CPRA.

Right to Deletion

In certain circumstances, you have the right to request that we delete any of your personal information that we collected from you and retained, subject to certain exceptions. Once we receive and confirm your verifiable consumer request (instructions and description below), we will delete, and, as applicable, direct our service providers to delete, your personal information from our records, unless an exception applies.

We may deny your request to delete your personal information if retaining the information is necessary for us or our service providers, subject to certain exemptions.

Right to Correct/Right to Rectification

In certain circumstances, you have the right to request correction of any inaccurate personal information. Upon verifying the validity of a valid consumer correction request, we will use commercially reasonable efforts to correct your personal information as directed, taking into account the nature of the personal information and the purposes of maintaining your personal information.

Right to Non-Discrimination

We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your rights under the CPRA.
